

Henry Carpender

p 14 Had lunch after hearing of the murder before going to see Mrs. Hall. I suppose people do go on about their regular business, but this doesn't set just right.

p 17 "Jimmy Mills" is here. Why the familiarity? Was he so well known to Carpender that he would thus speak of him?

William Stevens

p 18 Had the revolver always been so locked up? If so how did they get hold of it to file off the bearing?

p 19 Lines 2, 3, 4. This is well.

p 34 "Prior to the time that I went to bed, 10 minutes to 12." He had said before that this was when he, in the midst of his tossing and turning, looked at his clock.
